

Hi-Lites Of Seaside Heights

By GRAYCE RYCKMAN

Guess I'd better explain why I missed my weekly visit with you last Thursday. I was so involved with setting up the annual two-week PTA Membership Drive that I didn't have time to jot down the news. Before I do so this week, may I remind those of you who have not already done so to send in your money for membership to our Seaside PTA? Tomorrow is the last day of the two-week drive, and while memberships are always needed and welcome, we do hope to reach our goal of 400 by 3:30 p.m.

While on the topic of school activities, Roland White of Zakon Rd., teacher of 5th grade at Seaside Elementary, and Katherine Grogan, 4th grade teacher, took their classes to the Southwest Museum in Highland Park last Tuesday. A goodly number of our small fry from the Heights were among the lucky ones to see and hear about the Indian Relics, etc. Those enjoying the trip were: Barry Holstin, Susan Slover, Clifford Burk, Johnny Weber, Jimmy Hendon, Eddie Graham, Freddie Martin, Larry Cauldill, Dick Beard, Craig Slater, Michael Gray, Ronnie Hulsey, Stephen Piers, Margaret McClune, Carolyn Waddingham, Carol Frakes, Sandra Rosecrantz, and Judith Ryckman.

Trips and Travel . . . Helen Slover and her two sweet daughters, Susan 9, and Nancy 7, left early Saturday morning with Grandpa Gunther and his wife Sylvia, for a weekend "away from it all." They went up around Sacramento, and returned Monday evening.

The Floyd Holstin family: Floyd, Merle, Bobby, Barry and Bobetta (also dog Sparky) took a weekend vacation over the 10th, 11th, and 12th. They drove around Santa Cruz and set up camp in one of the parks. Had a very fine trip from all reports, especially enjoying their visit to the Mystery Spot, where gravity deceives the public.

Early last Saturday morning Joe and Esther Johnson, and son "Bobby," of Bindewald Rd., took off for 29 Palms and the big Pioneer Days Celebration. They returned Sunday evening all pleased from a wonderful trip. Esther was still laughing at the antics in the donkey ball game, and Bobbie was proud of the bargain bacon, a half pound for a dime.

I guess I may as well add here that my better half, Emmett Ryckman, started out on a deer hunting trip the morning of the 6th and arrived at Frog Meadows that evening only to find that there was no hunting in the area because a seven year old boy had been lost for three days. Emmett joined the searchers and the boy was found, apparently all right.

Much of our news again this week has to do with the health of our neighbors . . . Both Grandpa Batted of Vanderhill Rd., and Bernadette Weber of Zakon Rd., are home again from the hospital. From what I hear both are looking alright and are up and around. Charles Austin of Macafee Rd., also is recuperating from a trip to the Torrance Memorial Hospital. He had surgery last Wednesday, and hopes to be back working on the remodeling job on their home, 5113, real soon. Mrs. Leopold Rock of Vanderhill Rd. has also been quite ill.

Many people have asked me what happened on Bindewald Rd. last Thursday. There was a fire at Bob and Anita George's home, 5246. No one was home at the time but Mrs. Clawell, next door, happened to see the smoke and asked Dee Callahan to call the Fire Department. Aside from much smoke there was little damage. The fire started around the wall heater. Dee said the Fire Department was here within minutes and was extremely careful to avoid any unnecessary soil while cleaning up the damaged area.

Arriving in the Heights on Sunday, the 5th, to spend the winter was Mrs. K. Marchel, mother of Ted Marchel of 5267 Zakon Rd., and Henry Marchel who lives with his wife Dottie at 5223 Bindewald Rd. She is from Board, Evening, Jerry stay at Ted's home, famous for its yard and barbecue.

Which leads to this next bit of news. Last Saturday, a farewell barbecue was given in Ted Marchel's yard for Johanna Trainor who is flying this week with her mother, Millie Trainor, to Alaska to join her father, S.Sgt. John Trainor. A large group of Johanna's friends honored her with the barbecue party, chaperoned by Mrs. Edna Woodall. With a few names unrecalled, this is a list of those present: Billy Dwyer, Sonny Bernath, Bob Calkins, Ron Calkins, Johnny McDonald, Jimmy Pomers, Jimmy Papst, Jackie Johnson, Walter Boyer, Leroy Parks, Doug Evening, Jerry Morris, Sharon Morris, Alexandra Merola, Johanna Trainor, Jacke Gaida, Adrienne Keyes, Susan Dukeman, Leslie Black, Mitze Trumi, Jeanne Woodall, Judy Cook and Nancy Goggins. And, of course, Ted and his mother.

A belated happy birthday is given to little Vickie Combs, who was a whole year old on October 10. Just announced, in my last column was the arrival of her baby brother, Charles.

Connie Priestly of Vanderhill Rd. was again hostess to one of the girls she went through nurses training with in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. The friend, Mrs. George Solinski, her Staff Sergeant husband and her two children, Suzanne and Steve, just recently arrived in the States from Hickam Field, Honolulu. They stopped to see the Priestly family on their way to a new base in Texas.

Organization Of New Church Slated Sunday

Organization of a new Evangelical United Brethren Church in the North Torrance area will be completed Sunday morning under the direction of Rev. Homer H. Miller, pastor of the sponsoring Central Church, and Rev. Kenneth P. Zeller, who was assigned the task of building up the new church last spring.

Worship services were started 4 1/2 months ago under the sponsorship of the Central Evangelical United Brethren Church at the McMaster Recreation Hall, 174th and Yukon Ave. During August a Sunday School was started and it now has an enrollment of 71 pupils. Those working to start a church in the area later asked the California Conference of the church to furnish a pastor, and Rev. Zeller was assigned to undertake the work as a mission project of the conference.

Work Progressed
The work has progressed to the stage where it is imperative that a location be secured for a church building. Rev. Miller reports. Negotiations are under way for the purchase of grounds and at least a temporary building for worship services.

The Rev. Dr. Oliver E. Schaffer, conference superintendent, will speak and will organize the membership into a regular congregation next Sunday during the regular worship service at 10:45 a. m. Members of the Central Church who wish to transfer to the new church will have an opportunity to do so at that time, Rev. Miller said.

Otis Tyson Jr. Aboard Navy Aircraft Carrier

Serving aboard the aircraft carrier USS Kearsarge with Fighter Squadron 72 is Otis Tyson Jr., aviation ordnance man, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Tyson, of 713 Pine Dr.

The Kearsarge reported to the United Nations command this month and is scheduled to take command of the Carrier Task Force making strikes against North Korean targets, the Navy reports.

Services at Foursquare Announced

Rev. William Clayton, pastor of the Torrance Foursquare Church, yesterday announced that he would speak on "The Fall and Redemption of Man" at the Sunday evening service which begins at 7:30 p. m. Sunday School will meet at the regular time at 10:45 a. m. and the morning worship service will be conducted by the Rev. Mrs. William Clayton.

Other Sunday meetings include the Crusaders at 6:15 p. m. and the Defenders and Cadets at the same hour. A Wednesday prayer meeting has been scheduled for 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The ladies' Dorcas Society will meet at the home of Mrs. L. W. Self this morning at 10 a. m. and Sunday School teachers will meet at 7:30 this evening. The choir will practice at 7 p. m. Saturday, Rev. Clayton said.

CAPITOL SIZE

The nation's capitol building in Washington has a length of 751 feet and a width of 350 feet, including the major approaches.

Lutheran Church Plans New Plant

Rev. Paul Wenske, pastor of the new First Lutheran Church edifice might get under way soon after the first of the year was expressed yesterday by Rev. Paul Wenske, pastor of the church, who said an architect had been commissioned to draw up the plans.

Site of the new church is a parcel of ground comprising about 3 1/2 acres at the corner of Carson St. and Flower. The land was purchased recently when the congregation voted to build a new church. Rev. Wenske said yesterday that the fast growth of the community had caused a greater influx of persons in the churches of the city and that the present facilities of the First Lutheran Church at Acacia and Sonoma were no longer adequate for the congregation.

"In order to be able to serve the people of Torrance better and to take care of a greater amount of people for both the worship services and Sunday School, the church congregation
